Secura Key Produces Flash Video

Featuring Company and Product Line Overview

CHATSWORTH, CALIFORNIA - Secura Key announces the release of a 3-minute flash video production, which provides a broad overview of Secura Key's various product lines and capabilities. The video highlights the advantages of using Secura Key, discusses Proximity, Contactless and legacy card and reader technologies, panels and software, asset management and data collection products. It also highlights Secura Key's low cost, quality, technical support, and unconditional warranty.

Resellers can use this video to provide customers with more information about Secura Key, and the video can also be shared by emailing a link to a location on Secura Key's website, where the video is hosted. The video was professionally produced by AngelVision, a flash video production company located in Portland OR.
